

BGSU Saturday Art Youth Program (begins September 26th)

The School of Art at Bowling Green State University is proud to offer youth art classes this semester remotely for students in kindergarten – 12th grade.

The college has allowed us to proceed with the Saturday Art Program as an online program. The teachers for this program are still BGSU art education majors enrolled in ARTE 4070 (practicum experience prior to student teaching. Teachers decide upon a theme for the program and write a 10-week curriculum that aligns with Ohio Visual Arts standards and offers unique, create experiences. We are still planning for projects to vary between classes and include 2D and 3D media and historical and contemporary artist exemplars.

Class time and location

10:00 – 11:00 a.m. online. The Saturday Art director and teachers will communicate with families via email for class meeting links, when and where to pick up supplies, and any specific instructions. An introductory letter will be sent prior to the start of the first Saturday with specific instructions for starting and to help your student be prepared for a wonderful, creative experience!

Please help your student be prepared by 10:00 a.m. with listed supplies ready and a good view of the students' workspace on camera. If your student is kindergarten age, a parent/guardian is expected to participate alongside the student. For older students., parents/guardians are welcome to attend as needed.

Overarching Theme

The overarching theme for this semester is Nature: The World Outside Your Window. Each teacher when then tweak that theme to best intrigue the grade level they are working with.
